THE GOODWINS OF DINWIDDIE CO., VIRGINIA.

The following fragment of a Goodwin family residing at an early date in Dinwiddie county has not yet been identified. It claims relationship with the Goodwyns, but the oldest living members of that branch say that they never heard of any relationship nor knew of any intermarriage of the Goodwyns with the Youngs, Hardaways, Stiths, etc., through which families the blood is preserved.

It is possible that James Goodwin, the earliest known ancestor, may have been a son of Mathew Goodwyn (Thomas, Mathew, James). It only adds one more complication to the Dinwiddie puzzle:

James Goodwin, born about 1740, resided in Dinwiddie county, Va., and was a member of the Bristol Parish Church, or at least lived in that parish. He married a Miss Chapman, according to one account, but another says his wife's name was Judith Thweat, and died in Dinwiddie county. It has been impossible to get a complete list of his children, but there were other daughters and at least two more sons than those named. Children: i. son, born ——, married ——; ii. son, born ——, married ——; iii. Martha (Patsy), born ——, married James Young as his first wife; iv. Judith, born ——, married James Young as his second wife; v. Angeline, born ——, married Hardaway Young; vi. Winnie Tucker, born about 1770, married Henry (Harry) Young; vii. Robert, born ——, married Susan ——.

—— Goodwin (James), born in Dinwiddie county, Va., married —— ——. I can get no data of this family, except that this son and his wife both died and the two children were reared by their grandmother Goodwin. Children: i. John Thweat, born ——, married Hannah Goodwin; ii. Lucy, born ——, married —— Ennis; iii. William or "Nick," born ——, married Pink ——.

John Thweat Goodwin (——, James) married Hannah Goodwin, his cousin, daughter of the other unknown son of James. Children: i. Mary, born ——; ii. Lucy Ann, born ——, adopted by her aunt, Mrs. Ennis.

Lucy Goodwin (——, James) married Mr. Ennis. They had no child, but adopted her niece, Lucy Ann Goodwin, daughter of her brother, John Thweat Goodwin.

—— Goodwin (James), born in Dinwiddie county, was married and had a family. I can get no record of his name, but learn of the following children: i. Holly, born ——, married, first, Thomas Goodwin Hardaway, second, —— Ellis, third, Peter Heath, fourth, —— Williamson; ii. Hannah, born ——, married John Thweat Goodwin; iii. Sallie, born ——, married —— Abernathy (untraced).

Holly Goodwin (——, James) married, first, Thomas Goodwin Hardaway, only child of Stith and Sallie (Goodwin?) Hardaway.* She married, second, Mr. Ellis; third, Peter Heath,

* The Hardaway family seems to descend from John Hardaway, who resided in Dinwiddie Co., and had a land grant in 1755. He married Frances ——. He was a vestryman in Bristol Parish Church. The records of this family came through the youngest daughter, who married Edward Young. Doubtless Stith Hardaway was a son of one of this John Hardaway's sons, but I do not know which. Children: i. James Markam, born January 21, 1729, untraced; ii. Jean (daughter), born March 21, 1731, untraced; iii. John, born September 14, 1732, untraced; iv. Thomas, born September 20, 1734, untraced; v. Kerenhappuch, born June 27, 1741, married Edward Young. Kerenhappuch Hardaway (John), born in Dinwid-and, fourth, Mr. Williamson. I have only the names of her children by the first marriage. Hardaway children: i. Stith, born about 1810, married Elizabeth Ann Young; ii. John, born ——, married, first, Julia Pegram, second, Susan Cutlar; iii. Sarah, born ——, married William Henry Hungerford; iv. Susan, born ——, married William Watkins; v. Thomas, died young.

Martha (Patsy) Goodwin (James) married James Young as his first wife. His father was brother to Edward Young, two of whose sons married sisters of Patsy. After the death of Martha, James Young married her sister Judith, by whom he had no children. The children by his first wife were reared by their grandmother Goodwin. Young children: i. Elizabeth Williamson, born ——, married Capt. James Young; ii. Martha Ann, born ——, married, first, Benjamin Young, second, —— Dance (her first husband was son of Edward and Fanny (Dabney) Young; Martha Ann had no children by either marriage); iii. Dr. James, born ——, married —— Mills, a daughter of Dr. Mills, of Mississippi; had one child, which died young; iv. Robert, born ——, died unmarried in Mississippi. He was a lawyer.

Elizabeth Williamson Young (Patsy, James) married Capt. James Young, who was a planter of Richmond, Va., and an officer of the War of 1812. Young children: i. Martha, married, first, E. Barge, second, Robert Daniel; ii. Mary Winfield, married, first, James Barge, second, Dr. Couch; iii. James Thomas, married Miss Bell; iv. Elizabeth Williamson, married Thomas Nowlan and had one son, James Thomas. They reside in Richmond, Va.

Winnie Tucker Goodwin (James), born about 1770, married Henry (Harry) Young, a son of Edward and Kerrenhappush (Hardaway) Young. They were married, lived and died in Dinwiddie county. Young children: i. James Goodwin, born March 30, 1790, married, first, Elizabeth Ann Dean, second, Catherine Brewer, and, third, Elizabeth Clemonts Young; ii. Major Henry, die Co., Va., June 27, 1741, married Edward Young, a planter, of that county. Young children: i. Henry, born ——, married Winnie Tucker Goodwin; ii. Hardaway, born ——, married Angeline Goodwin; iii. William, born ——, married (who can give his wife's name?); iv. Frankie, born ——, married —— Williamson, and had two daughters, Sophia and Hardaway; v. Nancy, born ——, married Joel Studivant; vi. Edward (Neddie), born ——, married Fanny Dabney, and had Rebecca, Jane, William, Edward, Benjamin, and John F.

born May 3, 1792, married Frances Vaughan; iii. Judith, born 1794, married Jacob Mitchell.

James Goodwin Young (Minnie Tucker, James), born March 30, 1790, in Dinwiddie county, Va., married, first, Elizabeth Ann Dean; second, Catherine Brewer, and, third, Elizabeth Clemonts Young, his "double first cousin," born August 19, 1797, a daughter of Hardaway and Angeline (Goodwin) Young. James Goodwin Young was a planter and proprietor of the Tavern at Dinwiddie Courthouse. He had 892 acres of land on the north side of Sappony Creek, beginning at the corner of the land belonging to William H. Goodwyn (Joseph, Joseph, Thomas, Mathew, James). He left Virginia by private conveyance August 20, 1836, and arrived at Dallas county, Ala., October 4, 1836. His eldest daughter had married before this time, and she now (1899) resides in Dallas county, and has contributed much of this history. Young child by second wife: i. Elizabeth Ann, born 1813, married Stith Hardaway, son of Thomas Goodwin and Hollie (Goodwin) Hardaway; Young children by third wife: ii. Hardaway, born July 25, 1819, married Minerva Jones Vaughan. They had two children, Annie Mathews, born November 20, 1850, married Archibald B. Jones. They reside in Selma, Ala. Mrs. Jones has rendered great assistance in compiling these records; and Elizabeth Peterson, born January 23, 1855, married Samuel A. Mountain and resides in Mobile, Ala.

VIRGINIA GOODWINS.

Mary (Polly) Goodwin, born about 1759, married Sherwood Fowler, who enlisted in the Revolutionary War from Powhatan county, Va., serving six months in the Virginia troop as private, corporal and sergeant under Col. Willis and Capt. Walker a portion of the time. He applied for a pension December 5, 1832, then 73 years of age, and residing in Bedford county, Tenn. He died in Marshall county, Tenn., in 1839. Fowler children: i. Sherwood (Woody) married Betsy ——; ii. John; iii. Coleman; iv. Abbott; v. Jacob; vi. Mary Daniel, married Nathaniel Glenn; vii. Jane; viii. William; ix. daughter married her cousin, William Fowler.

Mary Daniel Fowler (Mary), born about 1797, married Nathaniel Glenn, a son of James Glenn, who was born in Scotland and lived in Cumberland, Va. Mrs. Glenn was an educated
